

PRESS RELEASE NEW HEAD OF BUSINESS UNIT AT KESSLER

Zurich, December 16, 2021 - Christoph Meyer will take on the leadership of the newly created business unit Public Entities, Energy and Transport at Kessler on January 1, 2022. We are expanding our divisional structure because of strong growth over the last few years.

Kessler has appointed Christoph Meyer as the Head of Business Unit Public Entities, Energy and Transport with effect from January 1, 2022. He has been a client executive at Kessler since 2020. Christoph Meyer is a lawyer and a member of senior staff. Before joining Kessler, Christoph Meyer spent many years leading the legal department of a major insurance company and brings valuable experience leading insurance consulting mandates and branch offices.

The newly created business unit complements and expands the existing sector organization. Managing Partner Tom Kessler wishes Christoph Meyer all the best and every success in his new role, adding: "In Christoph Meyer we have found a very experienced leader who is fully committed to customer satisfaction and high quality service."
