PRESS RELEASE

NEW HEAD OF BUSINESS UNIT AT KESSLER BERN

Zurich, 21. December 2021 – Sandro Quinz will take over the management of the Pension Benefits business unit at Kessler Bern on January 1, 2022.

Kessler has appointed Sandro Quinz as Head of Business Unit for Pension Benefits in Bern with effect from January 1, 2022. He takes over from Werner Moser, who wishes to focus more of his attention on customer service and advising and therefore has chosen to hand over leadership responsibilities to Sandro Quinz. Kessler would like to thank Werner Moser for his superb commitment and longstanding leadership.

Sandro Quinz joined Kessler in 2016 as an expert in Pension Benefits for international clients. Most recently he was the Team Leader of the International Employee Benefits team. He holds the Swiss Federal Diploma in Pension Fund Management and has spent over 30 years in various roles in the pension services industry.

Stefan Leuenberger, Member of the Executive Committee, wishes Sandro Quinz much success and enjoyment in his new role: "In Sandro Quinz we have found a very committed manager who has demonstrated strong advisory expertise. Sandro Quinz is an ideal complement to the management team in Bern. Kessler Bern will enable us to expand our advisory services in pension benefits."
