

PRESS RELEASE

NEW HEAD AT KESSLER'S GENEVA OFFICE

Petit-Lancy, 9 June 2022 – Kessler appoints Primus Berger Head Regional Office Geneva, effective 1 May 2022.

Primus Berger takes over as Head Regional Office Geneva as of 1 May 2022, replacing Cécile Baptiste who left her position to take on new challenges. Kessler would like to thank Cécile Baptiste for seven successful years with the organization.

Before joining Kessler, Primus Berger spent over 18 years with a major national broker as Managing Partner and Head of its Geneva branch. He holds a degree from HEC and has extensive experience in client advisory, project management and leadership.

Bernard Perritaz, member of the Executive Committee and Head of Kessler in French-speaking Switzerland, wishes Primus Berger every success in his new role: 'Primus Berger is a dedicated manager with extensive experience and proven skills in the areas of risk management, insurance and pension benefits, and we are delighted to have him at Kessler.'
